

Takoyaki Party

December 1st, 2017

With English Conversation classes finished for the winter vacation, international students and Japanese students came to L-café to have a takoyaki party. For some international students, it was their first time trying this traditional Japanese snack. It was a good way for students to have lunch and interact with students they may have not known before.